International Workshop on REGIONAL COMPETITIVENESS AND INTERNATIONAL FACTOR MOVEMENTS

17-18 March 2011
Orléans - FRANCE

Jointly organized by INFER (International Network for Economic Research)
and
*LEO (Laboratoire d'Economie d'Orléans) CNRS UMR 6221

Workshop Objectives

This workshop provides an opportunity for all those interested in international factor movements and regional competitiveness to discuss their research and to exchange ideas. Researchers are invited to submit both empirical and theoretical papers that are broadly consistent with the workshop's special theme.

Topics to be discussed during the workshop might include (but are not limited to):

Clusters and regional policies
Countries and regions in transformation and restructuring
Human capital, productivity and competitiveness
Capital movements and knowledge flows
Innovation and regional inequalities
Institutions, social protection and regional development
Location choices of multinational firms
Migration and regional integration

The workshop is open to anybody involved in these research areas, including both young and experienced researchers, Ph.D. students, post-doctoral researchers and professionals from business, government and non-governmental institutions.

Submission of Papers

Only full papers may be submitted, in pdf or rtf-format. No other format will be accepted. Papers should be submitted electronically to:

infer@univ-orleans.fr

New deadline for paper submission : January 14, 2011

We accept only one paper submitted by the same author. We will confirm receipt of your submission.

Papers must be in English and should not exceed 25 pages (A4 or letter) including all references, tables and the like. The text should be formatted in Times New Roman 12pt with 18pt line space and 2.5 cm (1 inch) margin on each side. Footnotes should be formatted in 10pt with 10pt line space. Please avoid colours in graphs and pages in landscape.

All papers must include a cover page with the following information:

- An abstract of up to 500 words, with JEL classification and no more than 5 key words, with the surname in big letters;
- Authors' full name, affiliation;
- Contact details for corresponding author, such as address, phone and e-mail.

All submitted papers will be peer reviewed according to a high-quality and fast referee process. You will receive an e-mail indicating whether your paper is accepted for presentation during the workshop or not before January 31, 2011.

Paper presenters are expected to discuss one other paper during the workshop. The discussant assignments will be made by the workshop organizers at a later date. As the workshop intends to build a network in this research area, participation is welcome even without paper contributions.

Publication of Papers

A selection of papers presented at the workshop will be published in an international journal. INFER offers several publication possibilities to workshop participants, including book volumes and journal publications. The workshop organizers will contact you about these publication possibilities later.

Location and Travelling

The workshop will take place at the following address:

Faculté de Droit, d'Economie et de Gestion (Université d'Orléans)
LEO (Laboratoire d'Economie d'Orléans) - CNRS UMR 6221
Rue de Blois, BP 26739
45067 ORLEANS CEDEX

Orléans is a city in north-central France, located on the Loire River, about 130 kilometres southwest of Paris. It is the capital of the Centre region and belongs to the Loire Valley which was added by UNESCO to its list of World Heritage Sites.

Orléans is one hour away from Paris - Austerlitz station by train (SNCF website: www.voyages-sncf.com). There are two train stations in Orléans: "Les Aubrais" and "Orléans Centre". Once you get off the train at "Les Aubrais" or "Orléans Centre" train station, you can take the tramway to the University (direction "Hôpital de la Source" : SEMTAO website <http://www.semtao.fr>). It takes approximately half an hour from the station "Orléans centre" and less than 45 minutes from the station "Les Aubrais" to get to the University: get off the tramway at the "Université-Château" stop.
